Happy Father's Day, Sunday, June 18th

Dearest Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

All is good at Lund Lutheran!
This is not an opinion, because I've have Jesus by the hand and He has lovingly told us "Peace, I am with you."

We have great ministers set for spreading the word in June. We are working on a congregational workshop on transition. We have our organist, secretary, council, women's group and people thirsty for the words of Jesus. It is so exciting and wonderful following Jesus!

God bless all of us on our new adventure. Pray for Lund, for the council, and for each other and remember Jesus is in control.

God Bless You,

Robin Turnwall
President

Pastor Jim's last day to preach at Lund was Sunday, May 28th we wish him well on his retirement.
May God Bless you and Barb on your future.

Hi Mousey here,

What a busy Month. May 7th there was a Retirement Farewell dinner for Pastor Jim and Barb. We wish him well on his retirement and God Bless him and Barb on the future. Detroit Lakes High School had graduation and Memorial Day of course.

June and July there will be different pastors preaching at Lund while they go through the transition of getting a new pastor. Keep Lund in your prayer as we go through our journey in search of a new pastor

Have a safe and fun June, until nest month.
